

June 13, 2011

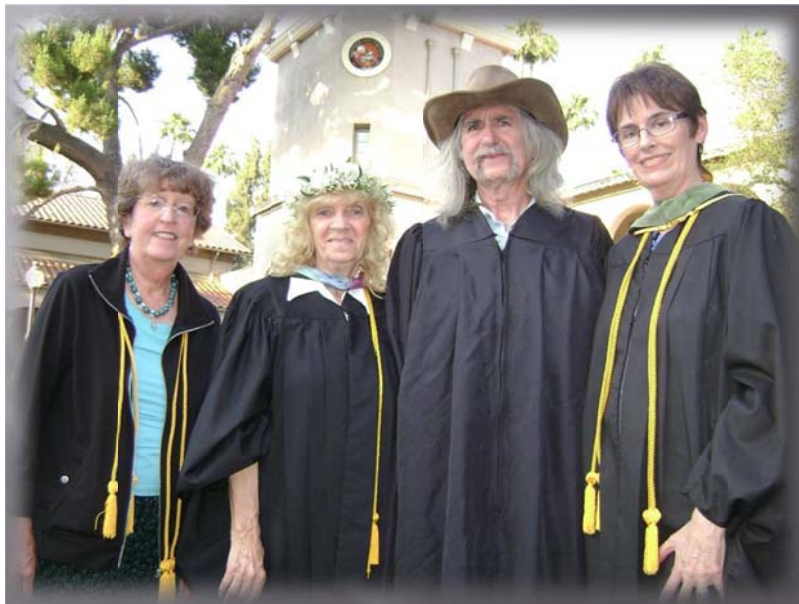

Countdown to Riverside City College's 100th Anniversary

In the nearly 100-year history of Riverside City College, only twelve faculty members have taught full-time for forty years or more. At the beginning of the 2010-11 academic year, four of these individuals were still on the staff. The photograph below was taken June 9, 2011 at the Faculty Reception prior to the RCC Commencement ceremony.

Among the achievements of this group are: Three Faculty Awards for Teaching Excellence, Two Distinguished Faculty Lecturers, and the knowledge that they made a difference in the lives of their students.

It is 4 years and 39 weeks until RCC's 100th Anniversary on March 13, 2016.

From left-to-right are pictured: Phyllis Rowe (1968-2010; Nursing), Jan Schall (1971-date; Sociology), Al Parker (1969-2011; History), and Kathy Farris (1971-2011; Physical Education).

The Riverside City College Instructional Media Center is bringing you this five year countdown to RCC's 100th Anniversary. Our intention is to give everyone a weekly glance at the many people and events that have been a part of the college.

Our thanks go to the RCC Digital Library Archives and the District's Office of Strategic Communications and Relations for allowing us to use their photo and newspaper collections. Thanks as well to all of the RCC students and Faculty Advisors that were a part of the yearbook and newspaper staffs. Thanks also to Tom Johnson and Gilbert Jimenez who wrote "the book" about RCC's history. "Riverside City College 1916-1981- A 65 Year History" is available in the RCC Digital Library.

For copyright purposes, all images originating from Riverside City College publications and the District's Office of Strategic Communications and Relations are the property of the Riverside Community College District.