Countdown to Riverside City College's 100th Anniversary

THEN AND NOW: In the 1936 Riverside Junior College "Tequesquite" yearbook, Quadrangle room 200 was pictured as the staffroom of "The Arroyo" student newspaper. In these rather cramped quarters, twelve students can be seen toiling away on the latest edition. Fast forward to 2011, seventy-five years later, Quadrangle room 200 is now the office of Kathy Kelly (Professor of Spanish - 1989 to date).

It is 4 years and 25 weeks until RCC's 100th Anniversary on March 13, 2016.

The Riverside City College Instructional Media Center is bringing you this five year countdown to RCC's 100th Anniversary. Our intention is to give everyone a weekly glance at the many people and events that have been a part of the college.

Our thanks go to the RCC Digital Library Archives and the District's Office of Strategic Communications and Relations for allowing us to use their photo and newspaper collections. Thanks as well to all of the RCC students and Faculty Advisors that were a part of the yearbook and newspaper staffs. Thanks also to Tom Johnson and Gilbert Jimenez who wrote "the book" about RCC's history. "Riverside City College 1916-1981- A 65 Year History" is available in the RCC Digital Library.
