Countdown to Riverside City College's 100th Anniversary

The Riverside City College Marching Tigers Band has represented the college in the annual Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade five times (1990, 1997, 2004, 2009 and 2010). The Director of the RCC Marching Band is Gary Locke (Associate Professor, Music 1984-date). The Assistant RCC Band Director is Sheila Locke (Music Specialist 1990-date). On January 2, 2012 the band is scheduled to make its sixth appearance in the venerable parade as the opening and closing acts.

It is 4 years and 11 weeks until RCC's 100th Anniversary on March 13, 2016.

The Riverside City College Instructional Media Center is bringing you this five year countdown to RCC's 100th Anniversary. Our intention is to give everyone a weekly glance at the many people and events that have been a part of the college.

Our thanks go to the RCC Digital Library Archives and the District's Office of Strategic Communications and Relations for allowing us to use their photo and newspaper collections. Thanks as well to all of the RCC students and Faculty Advisors that were a part of the yearbook and newspaper staffs. Thanks also to Tom Johnson and Gilbert Jimenez who wrote "the book" about RCC's history. "Riverside City College 1916-1981- A 65 Year History" is available in the RCC Digital Library.
