1. Curriculum Proposals
2. Curriculum Clerical Changes

Discussion Items

1. Call to Action Meeting – Kelly Douglass
  - a. Topic postponed to December 1 meeting.
2. Experimental Courses – Kelly Douglass and Casandra Greene
  - a. Question: Are we allowing Experimental Courses, or is this a practice that should not be permitted?
  - b. Ajene Wilcoxson – A partnership was established with the American Management Association, which has a one course certificate program that business leaders and students can take to help with promotions and employability. The association is willing to work with RCC and to provide funding through Strong Workforce to see if the course is of interest to students and the community, and faculty would like to offer it.
  - c. Kelly Douglass – There is a provision in the PCAH that says that experimental courses can be offered twice without it going through the local curriculum process. Is it possible to develop a ‘non-approval’ and review process where we just note that a pilot course exists so that it is listed in the system and automatically sunsets after two semesters? This would help with ensuring that no one forgets the course exists.
  - d. Ann Pfeifle – Is there an example of doing this within the district that we can revert back to?
    - i. Jeannie Kim – Spoke with former Vice Chancellor Susan Mills who stated there was nothing in recent memory.
  - e. Recommendations:
    - i. Since the course must be inventoried at the state, it must be entered into Meta.
    - ii. Keep the course listed at the Tech Review level and on the agenda so it can be sunset after two semesters.
    - iii. In the Rationale, note that it is an experimental course.
    - iv. In Colleague, end date and end term the course so it cannot be scheduled after two semesters.
    - v. Codify this process in the RCCD Curriculum Handbook.
  - f. The committee agreed to move forward with the experimental course. Ajene Wilcoxson thanked the committee and offered to return to report on the course after one term.
3. ADJ T3A Deletion – Jeannie Kim
  - a. At the previous DCC, the deletion for ADJ T3A was approved. The deletion includes language that states that “During the training for this course, role players are carefully monitored and provided with alcohol, to allow the students to evaluate under the influence drivers. This course is inappropriate for the college to participate in- therefore it will be deleted from the class offering.”
  - b. Is it possible for other language be used to describe why this course is being discontinued? President Steinbeck indicated that the course is being offered at the academy, rather than at the college.
  - c. Ann Pfeifle – Agreed to work with faculty to obtain more appropriate language for the deletion.
