 - b. Approved, Unanimous

Action Items

1. AB361 – Authorization to Allow for Hybrid Meetings
 - a. 1st A. Pfeifle; 2nd B. Johnson
 - b. Approved, Unanimous
2. Curriculum Proposals

Discussion Items

1. DE Addenda Modifications to Include Synchronous/Asynchronous/Hyflex – Ann Pfeifle
 - a. Postponed to next meeting.
2. Listing OER Texts in Meta (Date, ISBN) and Encouraging Faculty to Use OER – Ann Pfeifle
 - a. Postponed to next meeting.
3. Identifying Pathways/Schools for New Programs – Kelly Douglass and Ellen Brown-Drinkwater
 - a. When a new program is taken through curriculum, we should identify the pathway or college it belongs to. This is then indicated in the application. Can the program proposal forms be updated to have faculty submit this information?
 - b. Bryan can update the form with a drop down if a list of the options is provided. AOs have offered to provide a list.
4. PSY-48 Unit Change Proposal – Steven Schmidt
 - a. Steven Schmidt received some questions regarding the proposed PSY-48 unit change. The course is currently 3 units and the proposal is to increase the course to 4 units. This would impact a variety of programs and ADTs.
 - b. Kelly Douglass – Have SOC faculty agreed to the change? The course is crosslisted with SOC-48.
 - i. Steven Schmidt – Not sure at this point.
 - c. Casandra Greene – This is a concern particular for ADTs and programs, as all documentation would need to be updated. There may be a concern regarding double counting units for ADTs as well.
 - d. Kelly Douglass – Why are faculty seeking to update the course?
 - i. Steven Schmidt – Faculty would like more time to cover course content. However, one of the items we review at Tech Review is additional content when there is a unit increase. The originator indicated there would not be more content.
 - e. Kelly Douglass – Is there a C-ID concern?
 - i. Jeanne Howard – The C-ID is for statistics, which is the same as MAT-12. This has been approved as 3 units, while MAT-12 is approved as 4 units.
 - ii. Brian Johnson – The C-ID states 3 or 4 units.
 - f. Kelly Douglass – What are our rules regarding justification? If faculty have been teaching the course for some time, what is the justification for the change? If they want to make a shift in emphasis, they should do that with more content as well.
 - g. Kelly Douglass – Tech Review could not forward the course without SOC faculty agreement. And it is unlikely to pass TR without additional content to justify the unit change.
 - h. Brian Johnson – Historically, MAT-12 was a 3-unit course, but then was increased to 4 units for C-ID. At that time, additional content was added.
 - i. Steven Schmidt – We may want to have a representative attend Tech Review to discuss the justification for the unit increase.

5. Communications Studies 2.0 ADT – Bryan Medina
 - a. A Communication Studies 2.0 ADT has been created. Previously, when we had the Business Administration 2.0 program come through curriculum, there were some questions raised regarding how it would replace the original Business Administration program and whether a discontinuance for the original program was necessary to remove it from the catalog. When the Communications Studies 2.0 program comes through curriculum, we may want to establish a process at that time.
6. Meta Updates – Bryan Medina
 - a. Bryan Medina reviewed a number of Meta updates, including the removal of the originator from the COR, the addition of cross-disciplines to the COR, the addition of Extensive Preparatory Labs to the COR, and a condensing of how GESLOs are displayed.
 - b. The committee agreed that the Extensive Preparatory Lab flag should be removed from the COR.
 - c. Bryan Medina – At the Curriculum Institute, Curriqnet demoed their anticipated new user interface. They stated they are hoping to go live with the new interface within 12 months. For a period of time, they will have both interfaces available for use, but the eventual plan is to move all colleges to the new interface.
7. GE on COR Question – Brian Johnson
 - a. KIN V10 appears to be displaying some incorrect information regarding GE approval. Bryan Medina will work with Curriqnet to have it corrected.
8. IGETC Area 7 – Ellen Brown-Drinkwater
 - a. IGETC Area 7, Ethnic Studies, will accept CSU approved Ethnic Studies for this first cycle. If there are substantial changes to the courses, they will have to be resubmitted. AOs will bring this topic to the college curriculum meeting.
9. ADJ Facilitator – Kristy Paine
 - a. Oliver Thompson managed the ADJ as the subject matter expert historically. The three colleges want to know if they can have two district discipline facilitators. ADJ has common curriculum, but at Moreno Valley College, the BCTC courses are specific to Moreno Valley. Is this possible?
 - b. Kelly Douglass – To be clear, everyone in the discipline is a subject matter expert. But there can be multiple district discipline facilitators if the district-wide discipline agrees. Both facilitators would have access to all ADJ courses, but only one approval would be necessary.
 - c. Kristy Paine will forward the names of the facilitators to Bryan Medina after the discipline meets to discuss.
