2. Approval of Minutes – October 4, 2022
  - a. 1st A. Pfeifle, 2nd B. Johnson
  - b. Approved, Unanimous

Discussion Item

1. ETS and HIS Review of Courses
  - a. Kelly Douglass – The Technical Review committee wants to ensure understand the agreement that ETS and HIS faculty have come to regarding the HIS-31/ETS-2 crosslisted courses as well as the HIS-60 and 61 courses, which do not have crosslisted versions.

- b. Kelly Douglass – From the HIS faculty meeting minutes, HIS-31 and ETS-2 are currently crosslisted and to allow for further discussion with ETS and HIS faculty, the plan is to remove the crosslisting by the Fall 2023 curriculum deadline, if that’s the agreement between the two disciplines.
  - i. Alexis Gray – Is this what HIS agreed to, ETS agreed to, or both?
  - ii. Kelly Douglass – This is from the HIS minutes. Can ETS confirm this is what has been agreed to?
  - iii. Monica Hernandez – Yes, this is correct.
- c. Kelly Douglass – Is there anything else needed from the parent departments?
- d. Alexis Gray – ETS faculty are primarily made up of non-tenured faculty members, so they may not feel as empowered to express if they have descension. Want to ensure they are supported and this agreement is what they want to do. Do the ETS faculty members feel properly represented? Are there any comments?
- e. Deborah Brown – As un-tenured faculty in both HIS and ETS, in the HIS space, there was conversation about whether HIS faculty have the training and qualifications to teach what is in the new ETS-2 COR. Felt there were different rules when different ETS courses have come through the department at RCC. Expressed concern over whether the HIS faculty would have the qualifications to teach a course that is not based in HIS.
  - i. Alexis Gray – The perspective of the ETS chairs is that ETS is a separate discipline with a separate lens. While there are spaces for collaboration, we don’t want to see a future where ETS only exists as a discipline of crosslistings.
  - ii. Kelly Douglass – This point was also captured in the HIS minutes. There were two major concerns: first a new ETS faculty was hired with the intention of teaching ETS-2/HIS-31, but the faculty does not have an FSA in History. If the course is no longer crosslisted, we may need to reconsider the hiring process. ETS faculty are also concerned about the ability of HIS faculty to teach the new HIS-31 revised course. If understanding correctly, those are the two pedagogical questions that ETS and HIS have in front of them as they think about the future of these classes in advance of next fall’s late September deadline. Is this correct?
  - iii. Monica Hernandez – Yes, this is correct.
- f. Kelly Douglass – Are there any concerns about these courses continuing to be crosslisted for one year with the understanding that we will see them on an agenda for review next year?
  - i. No concerns were expressed.
- g. Kelly Douglass – At the next Tech Review meeting, all four courses (ETS-2, HIS-31, HIS-60, and HIS-61) are expected on the agenda and the committee will consider them with this discussion in mind.
- h. Kelly Douglass – The second question was regarding HIS-60 and HIS-61:
  - i. Ann Pfeifle – One of the questions was that these courses were created with Deborah Brown’s name as originator, but they were launched on Monica Hernandez’s behalf by Ann Pfeifle. Kirsten Gerdes wanted to know which minutes are needed from which department. Our process has been that it is the originating department only that must vote on the course.

- ii. Ann Pfeifle – In Meta, we will revert the HIS-31 to the crosslisted ETS-2 version and launch HIS-61 as a new course with Monica Hernandez as the launcher with the minutes that we have.
- iii. Ann Pfeifle – Additionally, Kirsten Gerdes had a concern about one of the SLOs specifically mentioning Ethnic Studies. Kelly Douglass and Ann Pfeifle recommend removing that SLO from both 60 and 61 so we can make a clear distinction between HIS and ETS and so that this course is purely based in HIS.
- iv. Kelly Douglass – Are there any questions or concerns about HIS-60 and 61 being under review for the next meeting?
- v. Monica Hernandez – Is it that SLO 2 is removed or edited?
  1. Ann Pfeifle offered to work with Monica Hernandez to review the SLO and to come to a determination as to whether or not to remove it.
  2. No concerns were expressed.
- vi. Kirsten Gerdes – Process question: If the launching campus is MOV, if RIV is intending to adopt, does the department need to vote on them as well?
  1. Kelly Douglass – If RCC and Norco want this to be a part of their catalog, the launching department only needs to have a vote. The district discipline vote must also be present.
  2. Kelly Douglass – HIS-60/61 move forward as HIS courses and if RIV/NOR want to adopt into their catalog, they can make that decision. Please contact Ann with the notes of what the historians at your colleges have decided.

The apprenticeship discipline requires an agreement or an approval with the Division of Apprenticeship Standards, and that document was not included. The RCC department voted to approve the course. 55250.5, Work Experience involving apprenticeship references standards from the Apprenticeship Council. The PCAH on pages 68 and 69 speaks specifically to apprenticeship, which are regulated in state regulations and code. Page 69, required documentation includes a signed letter. Additionally, if you're going to create a new program, it needs to go to Senate.
