

2. Other Ways to List Minutes and Approval in Curriquet – Kelly Douglass
  - a. Postponed to next meeting.
3. New Course Required Evidence – Nick Sinigaglia
  - a. Postponed to next meeting.
4. Legacy DE Approvals – Kelly Douglass
  - a. What should be done regarding the documentation for “legacy” DE approvals? The courses that have a legacy approval may not have the proper documentation that outlines how faculty can achieve regular and effective contact in their DE courses, and there have been reports of that information from the DE addendum being used as a basis for faculty IOI processes. Additionally, there may be a disconnect between what the curriculum committee is demanding of faculty when they complete the addendum and what they are being told actually counts towards regular and effective contact in their course.
  - b. By what rubric do you assess a DE course? What do we do when Section 508 changes, and there is an update required to the form? Do faculty need to review and resubmit their DE addendum?
  - c. Brian Johnson – Not sure that DE addenda need to be reviewed and approved. Faculty sign off on their TA that they know what regular and effective content is. It may be up to the discipline to determine an appropriate way forward.
    - i. Kelly Douglass – So, a discipline could revise their DE if they want to update it to make sure it is appropriate for an IOI.
    - ii. Brian Johnson – Not sure the DE addenda needs to be used as a part of an IOI. The reviewers don’t need to refer to it as a part of the review.
    - iii. Kelly Douglass – There are instances of reviewers referring to the DE addenda as a part of the process.
  - d. Steven Schmidt – Legacy proposals do appear to be an issue as there is no documentation that is a baseline.
  - e. Ann Pfeifle - Those with the legacy DE in theory are those people who were in the forefront of teaching online and often are on the forefront of doing it correctly. There may not be a concern regarding revising the DE addenda, but there would be a concern if there is nothing to base an IOI on.
5. Timeline for AA/AS Title 5 changes – Kelly Douglass
  - a. The Articulation Officers had previously shared a restructuring of the RCCD GE pattern in order to align with Title 5 updates and the upcoming Cal-GETC requirements. However, there are courses that appear in areas of the pattern where they did not appear previously. Because of this, the RCCD GE pattern should go through the curriculum approval process.
  - b. Timeline for approval:
    - i. Standards – Thursday, November 9
    - ii. College – First Read on November 14
    - iii. Tech Review – November 16 (Special meeting, one item only)
    - iv. College Meeting – November 28
    - v. DCC – December 5
  - c. Bryan Medina – Why were classes added?
    - i. Nick Franco – They were added in anticipation of Cal-GETC alignment.
  - d. Kelly Douglass – The document with a comparison to what Title 5 requires and the new categories would be helpful to look at before the Standards discussion. Some additional concerns are that the CIS and CSC courses that were in Area D2 no longer appear in the GE pattern. Additionally, a large number of HIS courses in areas where they were not included previously. May need to have a larger discussion regarding whether courses included in multiple areas in Cal GETC should also be included in multiple areas in RCCD GE.

6. Open Forum
  - a. None

7. Public Comment for all items on or not otherwise on the agenda.
