II. Sabbaticals for 2012-2013 – to be ranked

Nick Sinigaglia – is an Associate Professor of Philosophy at Moreno Valley College. He has submitted his sabbatical (70%) to complete his written dissertation work and to prepare to defend the dissertation at UC Irvine which concerns the theory of representation espoused by the Philosopher Baruch Spinoza in his most famous work, the Ethics and its relation to other theories of representation in the early modern period.

Dayna Peterson Mason Gregg – is a Professor of Art at Riverside City College. She has submitted her sabbatical (70%) to enhance her professional skills as an artist and educator by interacting in a number of ways with other professional artists of notable stature from across the nation. A culminating exhibition will showcase the resulting creative works to the college and community.
