ACADEMIC EMPLOYEES' CERTIFICATION OF FREEDOM FROM COMMUNICABLE DISEASE

New academic employees are required to provide the District with a medical certificate which provides evidence of freedom from any communicable disease, including, but not limited to, active tuberculosis, that would render the applicant unfit to instruct or associate with students. This requirement is waived if the employee has previously been employed in an academic position in the State of California.

The medical certificate shall be provided by a physician or surgeon licensed under the Business and Professions Code. The physician or surgeon may send it directly to the District's Diversity and Human Resources Department (DHR), or the new employee may deliver it to DHR in a sealed envelope from the doctor.

The medical examination upon which the certification is based shall have been conducted not more than six (6) months before the submission of the certificate and shall be at the expense of the applicant, unless provided otherwise pursuant to the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement.

The medical certificate shall become part of the personnel record of the employee and is open to the employee, or his/her designee.

A contract of employment may be offered to an applicant subject to the submission of the required medical certificate.
