

BP 2400 COMMUNITY SERVICES PROGRAMS*References:

Education Code Section 78300;
Title 5 Section 55002

The District may establish and maintain community services classes in civic, vocational, literacy, health, family and consumer sciences, technical, and/or general education, including, but not limited to, classes in the fields of visual and performing arts, handicraft, science, literature, nature study, nature contacting, aquatic sports, and athletics. These classes shall be designed to provide instruction and to contribute to the physical, mental, moral, economic, or civic development of the individuals or groups enrolled in them.

Community services classes shall be open for admission of adults and of minors who can benefit from the programs.

No General Operating Fund monies (Resource 1000) may be expended to establish or maintain community services classes. Students involved in community services classes shall be charged a fee not to exceed the cost of maintaining the classes. Classes may also be offered for remuneration by contract or with contributions or donations of individuals or groups.

The District Academic Senate will be notified of class offerings prior to the community services programs schedule being posted. Any class that may impact an academic program shall be subject to the review of the District Academic Senate.

Also see AP 2022 Course Approval

---

Date Adopted: February 26, 2008

Revised: April 18, 2023

Formerly: 4400

AP 2400 COMMUNITY EDUCATION SERVICES

References:

Education Code Sections 66010.4, 70902, 78300, et seq.;
Title 5 Sections 55002 and 55160(b)

Offerings and conferences are established and maintained in civic, vocational, literacy, health and fitness, homemaking, technical, recreational and general education, including, but not limited to, classes in the fields of career enrichment, music, dance, drama, art, handicraft, home and garden, science, literature, nature study, sports, and athletics as well as classes designed for children and adolescents including driver education, the arts, academics, sports and fitness.

Offerings are designed to provide instruction and to contribute to the physical, mental, moral, economic, or civic development of the individuals or groups enrolled in them.

Offerings are open for the admission of adults and of those minors who, in the judgment of the Board of Trustees, may profit.

General fund moneys are not expended to establish and maintain community service education offerings.

Students enrolled in community education service offerings may be charged a fee not to exceed the cost of maintaining community education service offerings, or offerings may be provided for remuneration by contract, or with contributions or donations of individuals or groups.

Further information about the community education offerings and how to register may be located at: <http://www.rcccommunityed.com/>

Office of Primary Responsibility: Vice Chancellor, Educational Services & Strategic Planning

---

Administrative Approval: June 16, 2008
Revised: April, 2014 (job titles only)
Revised: August 2015 (job titles only)
Formerly: 4400